Reliance Yacht Management Launches Affiliate Programme

Yacht Brokers, Dealers, Marina Operators, Insurance providers and others in the leisure marine industry now have another potential source of income. If you have a website, you can make money by joining the Reliance Yacht Management Affiliate Programme! Reliance Yacht Management is the world's leading yacht delivery company providing services to many of the major charter companies and brokerages worldwide.

Would you like to make money from the yacht delivery business?

If you have a web site with customers who that may be interested in having their yachts delivered - just about anywhere in the world, Reliance be interested in working with you on an affiliate partnership.

The Affiliate Programme is where you link to our site and receive a portion of fee generated from the customers you provide us with.

Affiliate Programme

The Reliance Yacht Management Affiliate Programme allows you to start making money from yacht deliveries by simply adding a link to your site. When a customer clicks on that link and ultimately has their boat delivered through us, you will be credited with a portion of the fee. Partners are given code that creates an enquiry form on your site.

If you're interested in signing up – contact us and you can be up and running the same day.

Any leads received will be processed by us all the way through the customer cycle – Producing quotes, generating the contract, delivery, invoicing, etc. If the customer has their boat delivered by us who came from your site, we share a portion of the commission with you. All leads we receive from you will be coded as your customers so that the commission share is properly tracked.

To qualify for the affiliate programme, you must have an established site with a customer base that is complimentary to yacht deliveries (brokerage, marine insurance, marinas, yacht management, spares, luxury goods, etc.) If you feel that your clients, members or customers would be interested in yacht delivery service, the first step is to sign up for the affiliate programme. One of our managers will contact you to discuss how we can work together and the best way to implement the programme. We look forward to hearing from you!

How to sign up for the affiliate program

You have no risk or cost for the affiliate programme. Email us, telling us a little about your website and contact details, and we'll get back to you straightaway.
